

APOSTOLIC INTERCESSIONS & DECREES

Please speak these Intercessions & decrees aloud on the appropriate day. On Saturday & Sunday please go through the entire Intercession & Decrees. Job 22:28 instructs us:

You shall decree a thing and it shall be established unto you.

Isaiah 41:22 instructs us:

*Let them bring them forth and tell us what is to happen.
Let them tell us the former things, what they are, that we may consider them and know the outcome of them; or declare to us the things to come.

Remember to fill your declarations with faith. Let us utilize the corporate anointing as we make these decrees.

Thanks for your cooperation.

Apostolic Intercessions & Decrees

Monday

Intercession

Father, in the name of Jesus' Your son, we thank You that You have chosen to move by Your Spirit in this city. You have chosen to touch us by Your presence. Thank You, sir, that the move of Your Spirit and the declaration of Your Word will nullify the traditions of men in this place. Your Word will not be nullified in this place. Your Word will rise up strong in this city and in the hearts of men.

Thank You Father that holy wells are being dug in this city. Wells are being re-dug in this city; wells dug by Your saints of long ago: wells of salvation, and of healing; wells of deliverance and peace; wells of righteousness and truth.

Decree - Lord, we declare righteousness to be established in this city; justice to be established here; holiness to be established here; the might of God to be established here, in Jesus' name.

Thank You that You teach us how to dig them deep and dig them properly, Lord.

Thank You that the water of Your Spirit will again flow freely from these wells.

We pull the debris of unrighteousness from these wells, the debris of doubt and unbelief, the debris of sin and selfishness from these wells.

We pull the debris of wickedness and debauchery from these wells; the debris of idolatry and pride and self-rule from these wells.

We dig wells of humility and obedience to Your voice.

We dig wells of righteousness and holiness.

We dig wells of meekness and peace in this place.

We pull the debris of incest from these wells; the debris of adultery and infidelity from these wells, the debris of fornication and lasciviousness from these wells.

We call an end to the reign of these things in our lives.

We repent, Father for participating in these activities, whether for ourselves, or in behalf of others in this city and in this county.

We call an end to injustice in this city.

We remove the debris of that injustice that has clogged the wells of righteousness in this city.

We remove the debris of bigotry and hatred in this city; the debris of prejudice and snobbery that is in this place.

We remove the debris of thievery, of stealing, of cheating, and of defrauding in this place.

We call for honesty and integrity to be established in this place: wells of honesty to be dug, wells of integrity to be dug, wells of holiness to be dug.

We remove the debris of the dishonoring of parents from this place, the debris of despising authority from this place.

We remove the debris of rebellion and anarchy from this place.

We remove the debris of unrighteous rule from this place.

We remove the debris of unrighteous government from this place.

The debris of the unholy ambitions of men we remove from these wells in this place.

We call holiness to come, righteousness to come, justice to come, restitution to come, restoration to come to this place.

Forgive us, Lord, for our failings and for our silence before You concerning these things. We call on Your mercy Lord, to deliver us and heal us, in Jesus' name.

Apostolic Intercessions & Decrees

Tuesday

Intercession

Lord, establish the wells of healing in this city, the wells of deliverance in this city, the wells of salvation, the wells of spiritual maturity in this city, the wells of love and peace in this city, the wells of worship in this city.

Lord, restore the wells of Godly commerce here, the wells of invention, the wells of Godly education here, the wells of music and art in this city.

That which has laid its head down in despair and discouragement we call to awaken this day! Stir yourself and arise! A new day is here, in Jesus' name!

Lord, we call wells of healing, wells of intercession, wells of provision, wells of salvation and deliverance to be established here. We call wells of understanding and divine order; wells of interpretation of Your Plans and purposes to be established here.

Decrees

We declare the plans and purposes of God to be established in this place.

We call these purposes to go forth and take their place in the earth.

Prayer

Lord, we call for an open heaven in this place. A place where men and women, boys and girls can hear Your voice strong and clear; where men and women, boys and girls hear and obey all Your instructions.

Thanksgivings

Thank You Father, that You are drawing men and women, boys and girls to this city for this time; people who hear Your voice fresh and clear, people who can see what You want to do in this place; people with a fresh perspective; people that have not succumbed to the disbelief and unbelief of many in the city.

Thank You that You will bring about a gathering of believers in this city for the fulfillment of Your prophetic purposes; purposes for which You have established times and seasons.

Thank You that You are gathering those who once had come to this city, but were scattered away.

Thank You that they will come with fresh eyes, with fresh ears, and with fresh voices.

Thank You that they will speak and declare fresh things.

They will sing new songs.

They will dream new dreams and hope for new things for this city.

Thank You, Father that it is time for this city to come forth and for those in their caves to come out.

Thank You that for this city, it is a new day. The old has been decommissioned and no longer can fly.

Thank You that it is time for a new method and move in this city.

Decrees

I call it to come.

I call it to come quickly and without delay.

I call Your servants in to find their place.

I call them to come running.

I call them to come together and cry out –

“DELIVERANCE COME – It is your assignment to come. This day shall you arrive. This day shall you find your fulfillment in this city. This day is here!”

In Jesus' name we declare these things.

Apostolic Intercessions & Decrees

Wednesday

Intercession

Father, I thank You that You are drawing, even now, even as I speak, men and women, even children with their parents to this place. For You have plans for this place that have yet to be imagined.

Thank You that You are sending forth a wave of Your Spirit to bring life where destruction has reigned; hope, where despair has reigned, peace where turmoil has reigned. It's beginning to reign a whole new way in this place, in Jesus' name.

I call an end to the destruction and the patterns it has invoked in this city and in this county.

I call an end to the domination of desolation and destruction in this place.

In Jesus' mighty name, I call forth righteous government and righteous leadership in the places of influence.

I call an end to the anarchy that gangs bring and represent.

I call an end to it!

I call an end to the leprous effects of bigotry and hatred. Its day is over. Its day has yielded her last breath.

Decrees

I declare a new freedom of worship to come into this place.

I declare that bondages will have to yield their place to the new King in town.

Thanksgivings

I thank You that You have brought me and others, and still many others are coming to this place for this time. Thank You that You have spoken, and are speaking to men and women, boys and girls and are gathering them to a new place, for a new thing, in a new time.

Thank You that You are placing this city in their heart.

Thank You that You will cause an array of blessing to begin to come.

You'll cause an array of industry and opportunity to begin to find its way to this place.

Thank You that You are searching from church to church, from pastor to pastor to know their heart and whether they will be a part of this new thing and this new day.

Thank You for Your mercy to help them to embrace what You are doing in this time.

Thank You for granting them the courage to follow Your voice.

Thank You that in this place are men and women who know and hear the voice of God.

Thank You that You will still the voices of those who offer no hope.

Thank You for raising up the apostolic and prophetic voices in this city, and in this county, and in this region to speak to the heavens and the earth and usher in the move of God for this time.

Thank You for raising up men and women to speak deliverance to this city; that You are raising up men and women who will say "Yes" to You and Your purposes.

Thank You that You are raising up children to speak life to this city, to be able to go forth and bring healing as You guide their lives in this day.

Thank You that the youth of this city will not be lost, but will find their deliverer and their purpose in the things of God in this time.

Thank You that they will be given a place to obey Your voice freely.

Thank You that the wells of the young, the wells of the old, the wells of the rich, and the wells of the poor will be able to flow in the things of God in this city. Their voice shall be heard loud and long.

They shall speak deliverance and deliverance shall come.

They shall speak wholeness and wholeness shall come.

They shall speak life and life shall come.

Apostolic Intercessions & Decrees

They shall speak to dead bones and dead bones shall live again!

They shall speak and You will hear, Lord.

Thank You for doing so, even now Lord, in Jesus' name.

Lord, I rejoice that I will see Your moving in this city. That it will swell larger and larger, greater and greater. It will wash and cleanse, refresh and restore.

Thank You that this move will have strength and will accomplish all You desire for it.

Thank You that this will be a move that will bless the people and bless the nations.

Thank You, Father that this day is here. This day it has begun!

In Jesus' name we declare it so.

Apostolic Intercessions & Decrees

Thursday

Thanksgivings

Thank You, Father that You have wells of all kinds in this city.

Thank You, Father that You have Baptist wells, Methodist wells, Presbyterian wells, Catholic wells, Pentecostal wells, all kinds of wells.

Thank You, Father that our brothers and sisters in these places begin to dig their wells in accordance with Your instructions.

Thank You that the water of Your Spirit will flow long and deep from these wells.

Thank You that You honor the heritage of Your saints who first dug these wells out of the revelation of their time.

Thank You, Father that You watch over Your Word to perform it.

Thank You for making us well-diggers in Your Kingdom; that You teach us how to dig, where to dig, what to dig, what to use, Lord.

Thank You that as we dig the wells of revival that wells of renewal and wells of restoration begin to flow.

Thank You that the water of Your spirit is beginning to flow more and more, minute by minute, hour by hour, day by day, week by week, month by month, year by year.

Thank You, Father for bringing the thirsty to the wells and that the wells will be ready to provide.

Thank You, Father that the wells of salvation are being dug in this time, the wells of healing, the wells of deliverance, the wells of the manifestations of Your Spirit all are being dug in this time.

Thank You that wells of prosperity and blessing flow in this time.

Thank You that the wells of poverty and wickedness that have flowed in this place cease their flow. Wells of wickedness dry up.

Thank You that wells of provision, and invention, wells of ingenuity, wells of Godly ideas flow in this place.

Thank You, Father that the favor of God flows in this city like a mighty river.

Thank You, Father that wells of prophetic intercession are being dug.

Wells of worship are being dug.

Wells of insight and revelation are being dug.

Wells of truth and wisdom are being dug in this time.

Thank You that the Spirit of Truth reigns in this place.

Decree: Falsehood shall give way to Truth, the false shall give way to the True.

Thank You that deception and manipulation shall cease.

The strivings of men shall cease.

The ambitions of men shall cease and be replaced by obedience to Your plans and purposes.

Lord, Your purposes shall prevail. Your plans shall succeed. Your dreams shall see their day of fulfillment in this city. Those that prayed that this place would be a place of blessing for many shall see their prayers fulfilled.

Thank You that You teach us to dig our wells large enough for the tasks at hand.

Thank You that You show us how to dig these wells properly, Lord.

Thank You for Your mercy toward us, Lord, in Jesus' name.

Apostolic Intercessions & Decrees

Friday

Intercessions

Father, we dig wells of worship in this time. We call worshippers to come to this place.

We call intercessors to come, we call pray-ers to come. We call the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors & the teachers to come to this place for this time. We call the minstrels and psalmists to come to this place for this time.

We call an end to strife and exclusionism that exists in the church.

We call for a return to our first love to come into the churches in this place.

We pray for righteous men and women to find their places of leadership in the churches and ministries of this city.

We call out those who don't belong at this time.

We call in those You have ordained for this time.

We call for a removal of those not ordained for this time in this city and county; for those who would hinder Your moving and working, we call for a removal of them and their influence, in Jesus' name.

Lord, we call for righteous leadership in the churches in this city.

We call for the apostolic voices to rise up and the prophetic voices to rise up and be established in this place.

We call Your people into place, in Jesus' name.

We call the Kingdom of God to come in fullness and the will of God to be done in fullness in this place and in this time, in Jesus' mighty name.

Thank You, Father that it is done, in Jesus' name.

Pray & Declaration for the Spiritual Leaders of the City

Father, on this day I pray for the pastors of this city, the apostles and prophets, the evangelists and teachers...those that lead churches in this city. Father, I pray that the Spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of You be unveiled in their lives this day. I pray that You would grant them a comprehension of what is the height and depth, width and breadth of Your love. I pray Father, that You would give them a heart of compassion for the people they shepherd and for this city. I pray that You would grant them and their households peace. I pray a hedge of protection about them Father and about their families and their stuff. I pray that You would work Your righteousness in them. That the anointing of God would increase upon their lives. That they would have a revived hunger for Your presence and Your Word. Thank You that You are speaking to them even this day and drawing them close. I pray that every plan and purpose You have for their life would be fulfilled in full measure this day. Father, in Jesus' name I bless them this day. I bless their spouses, their children, the leadership of their church, the congregation. Father, I pray that You would grant them clear understanding of their purpose in this time in this city.

Father, those that are in leadership positions in the churches and ministries of this city who are out of place, I pray that You would remove them from those places and put in place the men and women You have ordained for this time. I pray that there would be no abortion of any plan or purpose for what You desire for this city at this time.

Father, I bind up strife, envy, and trouble of any sort. I revoke its right to operate in this city, in the churches, or in the leadership of the churches. Father, any junk that has been invoked against them, their families, their stuff, or their congregations, I bind it up in Jesus' name. I declare every action and intention of the enemy to be null and void. I declare the kingdom of God to come into this city, into the leadership of the churches in this city and into the congregations in this city. I pray that You would lift up those that need to be lifted up and that You would bring down those that need to be brought down.

I pray and call for a release of finances to the churches and ministries of this city that are ordained by You to be here. I bind up the spirit of financial control that has operated in this city these many years and declare to that spirit, that it is bound and its power broken over the finances of this city. I call for freedom and deliverance in this city.

I pray that You, Father, would bring forth the laborers needed for this time. I pray that You would raise up men and women to support the godly spiritual leaders in this city. I call an end to the agendas of men in this city and I call for a full release of the purposes of God for this city this day, in Jesus' name.

Father, bring Your leaders into unity. Bring Your people into unity. Give them a heart for the lost and a desire to reap the harvest that awaits us in this city. I pray for a release of the breaker anointing in this city to bring forth the harvest in this city, this day, in Jesus' name.

Thank You, Father for working in the spiritual leaders of this city. Those leaders that are in sin, I pray that You would bring them to a point of conviction, repentance and deliverance. I pray that You would minister a heart of forgiveness to the spiritual leaders of this city that the spirit of offense would have no place in their lives nor have any place against their lives. I pray that the Spirit of truth would minister to these men and women and that You would direct and enable them to preach the Word of God in truth and power, in Jesus' name.

Father, I pray for those that you want to bring into new levels of anointing, calling and appointments, would be able to make the shift into what you have in mind for them. The apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors, the teachers, I call to arise to your place in this city this day. in Jesus' name.

Father, I pray for a release of signs and wonders in this city. I pray that every gift of God that is in Your people would be released now, in Jesus' name. Thank You that You enable these leaders to help the men, women, boys and girls under their care to find and fulfill their place in the kingdom of God in this time. In Jesus' name, I thank You that You are working all these things in Your people and in Your servants this day. Amen.
