Overcoming the Makeddah Coalition

In the book of Joshua chapter 10, we are told of the story of how Joshua and his captains faced a coalition of five kings that have prophetic significance for us today. These kings who had joined together to resist the advances of Joshua and his army.

However, the Lord began to fight for Joshua and the armies of Israel. It was in this battle that the sun stood still and the immediately prior to that where the Lord caused hailstones to kill many of the Amorites.

These five kings were obviously not being as successful as they had hoped and had gone into hiding in a cave at a place called Makeddah. Following this major battle, these kings were brought out of the cave where they had gone into hiding (...what is hidden shall be revealed....) whereupon Joshua had his captains put their foot upon the necks of these five kings.

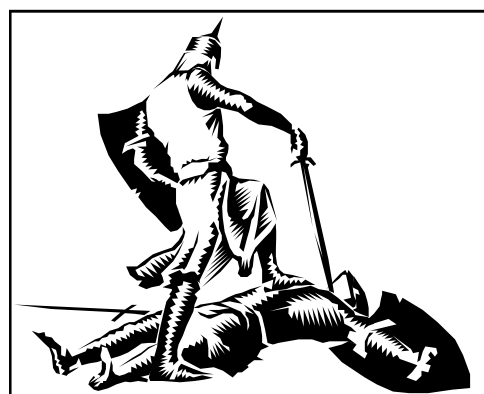

These five kings represented five arenas of conflict the body of Christ has been engaged in. Injustice, poverty, financial ruin, fear and confusion, the spirit of religion, the spirit of besiegement including a renegade spirit, a spirit of blindness and self glory, and a spirit of accusation whose aim is to discredit leaders and stop the voice of the prophetic.

After placing their feet on the necks of these kings, Joshua declared that the Lord would do the same for all their enemies and bring them all under their feet. The kings were then killed and hung on a tree.

Joshua then went on to attack and kill the king of Makkedah, which means "the one who will cause you to become impoverished, defeated, or oppressed." The intent of these kings represented for the children of Israel exactly that... impoverishment, defeat, and oppression if they were successful in their mission.

However, the Word of the Lord from Joshua to his captains was this: "Don't be afraid or discouraged. Be determined and confident because this is what the LORD is going to do to all your enemies."

...every place that the soul of your foot shall tread I have given you....

The body of Christ at large, and certainly the body of Christ in Wilson has been under siege by these six kings (the coalition of five, plus Makkedah). It is time the body of Christ rose to the challenge and put their foot on the necks of these kings and defeated them. The victory has already been assured.

We have the Word of the Lord, so let us take our place as captains in this city and stop their operations, in Jesus' name, because today is the day to issue their defeat

Pray for a harvest of harvesters in order to reach the harvest of souls.

A Vision of the Tunnel Runners

My wife and I were praying recently and I had a vision of a few men and women running through these under ground tunnels. They were beneath the city. They would locate blockages in the tunnels, come up to the surface to notify the city's spiritual leaders.

Most of these spiritual leaders didn't understand these tunnel runners. They weren't the most presentable people in the world, yet when the people on the surface began to unite in prayer for God to remove these blockages, God would move and remove these blockages. Then the entire city began to experience a new level of the glory of God. Christians and non-Christians would be immediately affected.

The government would recognize the change. They wouldn't necessarily know that it was the Lord, but an increase in positiveness would fill the city.

These tunnel runners are few and often misunderstood and don't know each other, but the Lord gives them key revelations that will unlock the glory of God in a city. I believe I am one of those tunnel runners.

If pastors and leaders knew to pray for these people, they would come out of the woodwork and begin to share revelations that would bring a much greater clarity to citywide intercession. These will be, in a sense, well diggers. ✠

This vision was shared with me recently by Walt Dowdy.

Walt, with his wife Cheri were youth pastors here in Wilson for several years and he directed The Potter's House ministry.

Recalling the Potter's House

Recently, Ron Horner, Editor of Intercessory Exposé began conversing via email with Walt Dowdy who was formerly a youth pastor in Wilson. Here is something he shared about The Potter's House youth ministry he once directed here.

I believe The Potter's House was a well of revival. It was a small one and not nearly what the Lord has in mind for Wilson. He has since shown me how I missed much of His purpose with The Potter's House. I failed to make connections to like minded souls and the ministry was not originally intended for just one church. I failed to hear Him on that.

None the less, it was a well of revival.

I felt the Lord prompting me to share with you what well it was —repentance. The Potter's House was a well of repentance. It was often messy and awfully boring for a teenager, yet there they were weeping and repenting in the presence of the Lord.

The Lord was able to move powerfully in our midst. Demons were cast out. Deep emotional wounds were healed. Healings and miracles took place.

Many were filled with the Holy Spirit. Most came from non Spirit filled churches to these meetings. They took this anointing back to their churches and of course due to that, I was not a popular youth minister in Wilson with some pastors. ✠

Digging Up the Coffin

By Walt Dowdy

I had a dream a few years ago that the Lord gave me the interpretation to in a morning prayer meeting at Wilson 1st AG. In the dream, my pastor and I arrived at this shed where a guy I was mentoring at the time had a shovel and was digging in the dirt. My pastor and I had our wives with us and we were going to be out on the town that night enjoying ourselves.

The guy was digging up a coffin. In the coffin was one of my youth worship leaders. The key to her father's house was in her grave. She wasn't decomposed but rather sleeping (for one year). We grabbed the key and went to her father's house.

The interpretation was simple: My pastor mentored me. The three guys represented three generations. The girl in the coffin represented youth-led worship (a raw new wine God was pouring out on the church). This youth-led worship possessed the key to the Father's house.

Former generations weren't supposed to dig this coffin up. The guy digging was happy to do so. He knew that is why he was there. The girl in the coffin was dead...she was sleeping. One year represented a season (I don't know how long time-wise).

The Lord told me shortly before I left Wilson that he would be removing many of the main pastors in the city. The old guard. Battle torn and with failing vision. Much like soldiers were removed from the frontline in war to bring in fresh troops. I saw the Lord bringing in new blood with new vision.

He showed me that Wilson is an outpost. An important one on that. I am not sure why. When it is won for the Lord, men and women will retreat to Wilson. They will also be sent out from Wilson. It will be like a training camp. There will be spiritual in-roads and out-roads from Wilson. It will be key to what God will do in the region. I believe it will have a special connection to Raleigh. It will be a leader to the north, south and east.

One of the keys to success in Wilson is the apostolic prophetic ministry. True apostles and prophets must be connected to Wilson. I ministered there under a segregated spirit. Even though there were ministerial groups that sought to bring together churches, it wasn't in the anointing of the Spirit of God. It was all outward show. This won't change internally. It will take high level power coming in from the outside.

Shortly before leaving Wilson, [Psalmist] Kent Henry (kenthenry.com) called me and said he felt he was supposed to come to Wilson. That is when I knew I was hearing from the Lord.

I asked him, "Honestly! Why do you want to come to Wilson?" He said it was for me. I knew that it was the Lord revealing his word for Wilson.

There was a prophetic release at that night of worship, as there have been many prophetic releases throughout many of the churches (in Wilson).

The time must come when the streams in Wilson unite in the Spirit. A key to the Father's House being opened to the nations in Wilson will be youth-led worship.

I believe an occurrence in the spirit realm will happen similar to what happened in 2 Kings 13:21. (Once while some Israelites were burying a man, suddenly they saw a band of raiders; so they threw the man's body into Elisha's tomb. When the body touched Elisha's bones, the man came to life and stood up on his feet. NIV)

Understanding and Dealing with The Makkedah Coalition

On our website at www.lifespring1.com, you can find more resources on the Makkedah coalition. Currently we have links on the home page to the article "The Makkedah Revelation" as well as the "Makkedah Declaration".

Once you read these articles you will further understand the significance of these revelational strategies.

Also, Dr. Bill Hamon & Apostle Jane Hamon have messages on this subject at their website that you may listen to online or order from their site. (christianinternational.org)

Other declarations and prophetic words exist on our website as well, that we use in better understanding and declaring the purposes of God over this city, county and region.

Feel free to join with us as we declare the kingdom of God to come and the will of God to be done in this city, in Jesus' name.

The work of God is rarely ever accomplished by any one man, one group, or one church. God has so designed an interdependence upon one another in order to activate and receive the promises of God. We need each other in the body of Christ.

No one group of people has all the revelation needed to accomplish God's purposes in a place. A church might have a piece of the puzzle, but they won't have the whole puzzle.

In our arrogance we often think we are the only ones doing anything for God when He will have pockets of people scattered about a city, a state, or a nation who are calling upon His name and calling forth his purposes in the earth.

If you know other intercessors, have them email us and have their name added to the Intercessory Exposé email list. We would be glad to have them share in the work God is doing at this time. Together let's fulfill kingdom purposes in the earth.
